

Package for you! Wonder what it can be?

English Translation

Package for you! Wonder what it can be?

A mounted rain forest elephant being delivered yesterday at the Iziko South African Museum in Cape Town. It is one of a collection of about 300 stuffed animals which were donated to the museum by businessman, writer, hunter and conservationist Peter Flack. The collection is worth about R12 million. The rare rain forest elephant Loxodonta cyclotis, is from the rain forests of Cameroon. The public will shortly be able to see the collection but a date has not been announced yet.

Watch video: